The RWBA 600 Club is a nonprofit organization organized to recognize all women bowlers who have bowled a 600 series in a certified league or tournament and to promote the sport of bowling through social, charity, and fun activities.

In order to join the RWBA 600 Club, you must also join the National 600 Club (per our Club Bylaws). Once you join the RWBA 600 Club, you are forever a member. However, you maintain active status by paying your annual dues presently set at $8.00/year. In order to participate in any RWBA 600 Club tournaments, your dues must be current. The Club normally hosts at least two tournaments each year for club members. To join, please complete all information below and return this application to Brenda Smith, RWBA 600 Club Secretary.
